Holloway Street, Carterton

Self portrait competition

Open to Year 6, 7 & 8 students from the Carterton area

A self portrait doesn't just mean your face, you can include things that make you, you!!! For example you could include animals, robots, family, motorbike, sport etc – things that are important to you.

An exhibition of participating students art work will be on display in conjunction with the Big Wai Art Sale, that will be in the Carterton Event Centre and No. 23 being the extension gallery to this event.

The winners will be judged by the public and the exhibition will be available to view from 5.30pm Thursday 6th, 9am to 4pm Friday to Sunday the 9th of September.
